2 Apply To Board For Hearing

Ask Adjustment To Zoning Laws For Gasoline Station

Two applications for special hearings before the Narberth Board of Adjustment were presented to the Narberth Borough Council at its meeting Monday night in Elm Hall.

The requests were made by Narberth businessmen and property owners to change laws in effect at the present time.

Guy Crovie, owner of a property at 202 Montgomery Ave., has asked for a hearing to consider amending a Borough ordinance which prohibits additional gas stations within Borough limits.

Refuse Permits
Previous requests for permits to build gasoline stations to both the Building Inspector, George B. Supple, and to Council, have been refused.

Supple has also refused to issue a permit to Albert Vick, Jr., of 832 Montgomery Ave., to build a storage building in the rear of his property.

Storage Space Only
Vick stated that he wants to use the building to store trucks, spraying equipment, fertilizer, and peat moss. His application requests the Board change the zoning ordinance so that the rear of his property is placed in a commercial zone.

Both the applications will be heard by the Board October 4 at 8 P. M., in Elm Hall.

Housing Group To Meet Oct. 7

To Name Committee To Put Four Point Program Into Effect

Organization of working committees of the Emergency Housing Committee will be undertaken at the next meeting of the group, tentatively called for October 7, Col. James H. Genung, chairman, announced this week.

Col. Genung said that he hoped that committees would be named to put into action the four-point program to tackle the housing shortage on the Main Line authorized at the meeting of the group held in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. Building last Wednesday night.

Resolutions Passed
At that meeting resolutions were passed empowering the Emergency Housing Committee's Steering Committee to undertake surveys of the housing needs of local residents, of all available land in the township, of the number of large homes capable of being converted into multiple dwelling homes, and of all available building materials and skilled labor.

Col. Genung said at last Wednesday's meeting that if Lower Merion Township did not solve its own veterans' housing problem, "someone from the outside will."

"If we don't make our own plans," he said, "we might be forced to do something we wouldn't care to do."

"Lower Merion Township," Col. Genung concluded, "should certainly be able to take care of itself."

AROUND THE TOWN

Nice to have Boro Councilman Sterling Chain back from his vacation. Congratulations to Johnny and Carol Brennan, children of the John F. Brennans, of 103 Woodside Ave. They celebrated their 11th and third birthdays respectively, not so long ago. Their family gave them a buffet supper; guests included Dick Tietel, Mickey Sullivan, George Kelly, Jack Connors and Terry Brennan. Mrs. Ruth Grace looked wonderfully cool and charming at the Boro Council meeting Monday night. It's an art to keep looking that way during a hot evening, but she is one person who manages to achieve it every time. We are missing one of our nicest reporters, Fred Goldberg. He's been having a short tussle with an operation at Temple Hospital, but expects to be back on the job in a couple of weeks, just as good as new.

Talking with Jim Barnett (he's from over on Merion Ave.) of the Veterans' Service Center in Bryn Mawr, I learned that the appropriation from the Township is due to come up at the end of this year. Trust that it will be given because you have only to know how highly they regard the Center, its head, Dr. J. Allyn Rogers, and his assistant, Jim. By the way, the Center's secretary, Mrs. James Cairns (she's realtor Joe Cairns' sister-in-law) is vacationing at the shore this week.

Stopped in at the Hamburg Hearth for lunch one day this week, and Charlie and Johnny Stoudt are surely making a terrific go of their place. They are the enterprising sons of the Charles Stoudts from the Boro, who opened a hamburger heaven to end all hamburger heavens when they got out of the service. More power to them, and the dill pickles are still "out of this world."

TAGLINES TO THE SUMMER

Nice to have Dr. and Mrs. F. Munro Purse, of Elmwood Ave., back in town after a Stone Harbor vacation. Understand Mrs. Franklin C. Hutchinson, of 24 Woodside Ave. and Wynnewood Park's Mrs. Evelyn Saam, wife of the well-known sportsman, have also returned home from there. Merion Avenue's Gallagher family received an end-of-the-season visit from their daughter, Mary Leahy and her baby, who came down from Boston.

Spotted Mrs. Roy Marshall and her son, Johnny, over town Tuesday afternoon. She's the wife of the Fels Planetary director guess you know.

The Boro received a compliment this week—it came from a Summer guest, Ben Chapman by the name of A. L. Living, during July and August. Well, his office (he's the Phillies' manager) called to make sure that he gets a house for next year because he likes the Boro and its people so much.

Paul Lees from over on Forest Ave. is having a visit this week from his talented sister, Sally. She is just 18 and has so much acting ability that NBC is giving her an audition one of these days.

Hope the Boro's Fire Company has fun up at Charlie Butera's bowling alleys in Ardmore. The new Narberth Bowling League is going to meet there on Friday nights, and the Fire Department.

Narberth Man Gets 3 Months' Sentence

Philip T. Shannon, 36, of 245 Hampden Ave., Narberth, was sentenced to a three months' term in the Montgomery County Prison and placed on probation for three years Friday by Judge Harold G. Knight in Norristown.

A paperhanger, Shannon previously pled guilty to charges of burglarizing the home of F. F. Roger Lindsay, Jr., of 448 E. Pine Ave., Wynnewood. He was arrested by Lower Merion police when he tried to sell his loot in an Ardmore cafe.

Judge Knight told Shannon that if he touched any alcoholic beverages during his probation period, he would be returned to the County Prison.

Dr. Harold S. Faust Installed By Christ Presbyterian Church

The Rev. Harold S. Faust was installed as minister of Christ Presbyterian Church of Overbrook Hills, Haverford and Manoa Rds., Thursday night by the Rev. Dr. Edward Shaw, Moderator of the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The Rev. Dr. Faust replaces the Rev. Walter Bruggeman who left Christ Church last Spring to become chaplain of the Perry Point Naval Hospital, Perryville, Md.

The Rev. Andrew Neilly, of the Board of Pensions of the Philadelphia Presbytery, has been serving as interim pastor since Spring.

Founder Charges People
Charge to the People at the installation services was delivered by the Rev. Edward Jordan, retired pastor and founder of the church. Dr. Charles Anderson, Manager of the Department of History of the Presbyterian Church, preached the sermon.

Charge to the pastor was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Shaw.

Gets Keys To New Automobile

William W. Latch, 3rd, of 435 State Rd., Gladwyne, was presented with the keys to a new Chevrolet last week by M. A. Flick, president of the Bala-Cynwyd Lions Club. Watching the presentation, which took place at the Kirsch Chevrolet Agency, 214 Bala Ave., Bala-Cynwyd are, (left to right) Russell, 14, Mildred, 22, William's brother and sister, and his mother and father; Flick, William, and Christian H. Kirsch, owner of the auto agency.

NO SWEARING Man Arrested For Firescape 'Cussing'

A Lower Merion policeman had his landlord arrested for swearing on a firescape last Thursday night.

Given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Joseph B. Allen, Jr., in Lower Merion Township Building, Armand Rossi, owner of an apartment house at 124 Ardmore Ave., Ardmore, pleaded guilty to charges of blasphemy and was fined $10 and $3 cost.

According to an information sworn to by Lower Merion Patrolman John A. Spotts, Rossi "did commit blasphemy, using the name of our Lord in vain, and other cuss words, in the alley and on the fire escape of the apartment house."

A 19th century statute states that it is illegal to "wilfully and premeditatedly blaspheme, or speak loosely and profanely of Almighty God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit or the Scriptures of Truth."

Pass Ordinance to Participate in Plan

Borough Acts Monday; To Work With State to Eliminate Curve

Members of the Narberth Borough Council passed an ordinance Monday night which guaranteed their participation in a State program to eliminate the curve on Wynnewood Rd. from the Narberth railroad tunnel to Elmwood Ave.

Passing the ordinance was a legal technicality, but formal action was necessary before work on it could be started.

681 Feet of Road

Construction of the 681 feet of roadway will be done by the State Highway Department, but both Narberth and Lower Merion Township will be billed for their share of the costs.

Narberth will pay the costs of draining the new stretch of road, which runs parallel to the East Branch of Indian Creek, while Lower Merion Township will bear the costs of construction of the approaches to both ends of the highway.

Uniform Width

The new road will be constructed on an acre and a half of ground which was given to the State by the late Parker Williams. The road will have a uniform width of 22 feet. It now varies from 20 to 24 feet.

J. P.'s Named

Justices of the Peace Otto B. Duer, of Narberth, and Walter B. Lowmes, Jr., of Lower Merion, have been named delegates to the Pennsylvania Magistrates Association convention at Allentown Sept. 23, 24 and 25.

Hutchinson reported eight sign violations, 19 parking violations, three automobile accidents, and 22 miscellaneous crimes committed during the month.

Meeting Scheduled

The September meeting of the Garden Workers Club will be held Monday at 2:30 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Henry C. Mayer, of Haverford. There will be flower arrangements by the members.

Relief Cases

A total of 24 Narberth residents were on the active list of the Department of Public Assistance last month.

Narberth Playground Ends Its Successful Season Labor Day

The most successful season in recent years at the Narberth playground ended Labor Day with a total attendance of approximately 14,084, according to a report made this week by Carlton S. Harkness, supervisor.

The report, made through William P. Davies, chairman of the Borough Council Property Committee, stated that the weekly average attendance was 1,563, and the daily average, 261.

Baseball Organized
According to Harkness' report, two baseball teams were organized for boys from the ages of 13 to 15, and from nine to 11. The older group won four out of six games played with Garrett Hill playground, while the younger boys won both games they played with the same group.

The most popular activity of the playground, Harkness stated, was the inter-playground basketball league for senior boys. A series of 10 games were played during the season, and appropriate trophies were awarded to the winning team at the end of the series. The league was under the direction of Robert Tabor.

New Activity
A new activity introduced this year was the handicraft class under the direction of Mrs. Mabel K. Hunsicker. Almost 350 Borough children, six to eight years of age, were instructed in making useful articles from leather, tile, and wood.

The playground was closed only four days during the season because of bad weather. Harkness' report recommended that the Council consider purchase of shuffle boards, badminton sets, ping pong tables and paddles, hard and softball bats, and soft balls sometime in the near future.

Now You See It— Now You Don't

Lower Merion police are still trying to find out how a car belonging to E. J. Mulligan, of 633 Overhill Rd., Wynnewood, made its way from 7 Old Gulph Rd., Bryn Mawr, to Harrington Rd., a quarter of a mile away, Sunday evening.

Mulligan went to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harkey Reiter, at No. 7. A half hour later he left the house and found his car missing. He called police, who, almost two hours later, found the car crashed into a telephone pole near Harrington Rd.

Police, at a loss to explain the car's journey down Old Gulph Rd., put the case down on the books as unsolved.

Church Women To Hold First Meeting Thursday Evening

Miss Marjorie Penner, of Fellowship House, will speak on her work with the Fellowship House at the first Fall meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Narberth Methodist Church. The meeting will be held in the Church rooms next Thursday.

Miss June Heller, who has been in charge of the youth work of the Narberth W.S.C.S., will also tell of her experiences with the Youth Caravan this Summer.

The program of events will start out with a covered dish supper, and will also include a short business meeting, and special music by the Narberth School PT. chorus.

The program was planned by Circle No. 6. Supper arrangements will be managed by several of the circles. Everyone is to bring a favorite covered dish. These will be received and arranged, and the coffee made by Circle No. 4, under Mrs. William Webb leadership. Tables will be set and decorated by Circle No. 3, whose leader is Mrs. Fred Plintholt. Circle No. 6, under Mrs. George Lees, will be in charge of clearing up after the supper.

Mrs. C. J. Brunel, and her daughter, Miss Adelaide Brunel, of 506 Beechwood Lane, Narberth, have just returned from a month's visit with Mrs. Brunel's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Patchen, of Cazenovia, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fittipoli, and family, of 150 Merion Ave., Narberth, returned Monday from Ocean City, N. J., where they spent the season at their Summer home.

Mrs. Samuel G. Krauss, of 217 Elm Terrace, Narberth, recently spent two weeks with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Thompson, in Dallas, Texas. She then joined her husband and children, Sam, Jr., and Sally, in Salem, Ohio, where they were visiting Mr. Krauss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Krauss. They returned to Narberth this week.

Residents Press Requests For Hampden Avenue Repaving; Temporary Job Is Suggested

Hearing Called To Discuss Shade Tree Law

Council Lists Meeting For September 23

A public hearing to discuss enactment of a Borough ordinance to define the responsibility of property owners and the Borough in caring for shade trees has been called for Monday evening, September 23, in Elm Hall, by members of the Narberth Borough Council.

Confronted with the ever increasing problem of deteriorated and dangerous trees in the Borough, the Shade Tree Commission called on the Council for help, and the public hearing was Council's answer.

Owners Responsible
Under State law, property owners are responsible for keeping trees overhanging the streets and sidewalks trimmed at the proper height, and to remove them when they become hazards to the public.

Legal action may be taken against a property owner for injuries suffered by persons as a result of neglect of the care of his trees.

The Borough Council has called the public hearing in the hope that all interested residents be present to express their views.

4 Bids Received To Collect Garbage

Council Refuses One Bid After Objection Is Raised

Four bids for the collection of garbage in the Borough of Narberth were opened at a meeting of the Narberth Borough Council Monday night.

One bid was received after the other four were opened, and was refused by Walter A. Fox, president, after an objection was made by a contractor who was present at the meeting.

The bids opened and read were as follows:
William Simons, Jr., Almost, for one year, with regular trucks, $5300; for three years, $15,800. His bid for the work with the special truck for one year was $11,000, for three years, $30,000.

William H. Schreck, of West Chester, did not enter a bid for making the collections with a regular truck. He bid only for the special body truck, and only for a three year period, $12,800.

Charles B. Seal, of Woxall, bid only for a three year period with a regular truck, at $7,200.

Joseph Bloesenski, of Lima, also made only one bid, that for a three year period for $10,440, with either type of truck.

In his report for the Water, Light, and Health Committee of the Council, Robert M. Cameron, chairman, stated that the Borough office had received only 10 complaints on collections in August made by the present contractor.

7 Building Permits Issued by Inspector

Sterling M. Chain, chairman of the Borough Council Building Committee, reported seven permits issued at a cost of $16, and five oil burner permits issued at a cost of $15 during August.

A Chain's report stated that estimated cost of the new building would be $3205. The new oil burners would cost approximately $321.

Takes New Job

Announcement of the appointment of Robert M. Cameron, of 105 S. Narberth Ave., Narberth, as Public Relations Director and Traffic Engineer for the Automobile Club of Philadelphia was made this week.

A former Main Line newspaperman, Cameron served as Safety Engineer in the Montgomery County Highway Department and publicity representative of the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners.

A graduate of Yale University in 1927, he is a member of the Narberth Borough Council and of the Cynwyd Club.

Chairman Tells 40 Citizens Present That En- gineers Have Been Employed to Estimate Cost; Interested Parties Will Receive No- tice of Share

Hampden Avenue residents again faced the Narberth Borough Council Monday night to press their requests for immediate improvements on the unpaved portion of their street.

Almost 40 residents, many of them veterans, were present at the regular meeting of the Council, held in Elm Hall.

Need For Security Cited as Union Aid

It was not until the end of the meeting that any of those present told the Council what was on his mind, however, and then, only two voiced their opinions.

They spoke up following a report by William S. Thompson, chairman of the Highway and Sewer committee of the Council, stating that the engineering firm of Damon and Foster, of Sharon

The Marshall's intended to circulate the petition among their neighbors and to present it to the Council as an official document.

At least half of the property owners of the area were required to sign the petition before it could be presented to the Council as an official document.

Hill, had been employed to prepare an estimate of repair costs. When the estimate is received, he said, each interested party will be advised of his share of the costs, as well as a petition to be signed if he wants the work done at the advised cost.

E. W. Marshall, who owns a home at the corner of Hampden and Price Aves., stated that the original flag of the street was done in 1935 without cost to any of the residents.

Temporary Work
Marshall was told by Borough Solicitor Henry A. Frye that the work was done with County aid, and "had we not had the aid, it is doubtful if it would have been done."

Thompson stated, "It is possible to take down the barrier fence, Continued on Page Two

3 Religious Groups In Liquor Fight

Representatives of a Catholic convent, a Friends' school and a Presbyterian church joined forces in Norristown Friday to fight granting of a liquor license to the Top Restaurant, 1415 City Line Ave., Overbrook Hills.

Successful in their earlier battle before the State Liquor Control Board to prevent granting of the license to Charles Wolf, proprietor of the Board of Trustees religious groups, along with a score of residents of the Overbrook Hills area, sought to consolidate their victory.

McFeeley Testifies
The Friends' school, Friend's Central School, City Line Ave., Overbrook, was represented by its Headmaster, Richard H. McFeeley and Jesse Linton, of 1201 Andover Rd., Overbrook Hills, a member of the Board of Trustees and Treasurer of the school. Linton is head of the Philadelphia restaurant chain.

The Presbyterian church, the Christ Presbyterian Church of Overbrook Hills, Haverford and Manoa Rds., was represented by its pastor, the Rev. Dr. Harold S. Faust.

The Catholic convent, the Convent of the Sacred Heart, City Line Ave. and Haverford Rd., was represented by its attorney, John J. Speese.

Residents Represented
Residents of the Overbrook Hills area objecting to the granting of the license were represented by Mrs. Agnes Veitch, 1465 Manoa Rd., of the Penn Wynne Library.

The three groups had earlier won their flag, against granting of the license at hearings before the State Liquor Control Board in Philadelphia last March and April when the Board ruled against Wolf's petition. Date of its decision was May 29.

The Board stated that under the authority conferred upon it by the State Liquor Control Act, it had the power to grant, or refuse to grant, a license if the prospective licensee was located within 300 feet of a church, charitable institution, hospital or public playground.

Within 300 Feet
The Board pointed out that the Top Restaurant is located within 300 feet of the Sacred Heart Convent.

Maxwell Strawbridge, solicitor for the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners, argued that the Board's ruling was an abuse of its discretionary power and petitioned the Court to reverse its decision.

Early in August Judge William F. Dannehower ordered the Board to show cause why the license should not be granted and set Friday as a date for a hearing.

Under Advisement
Sitting "en banc," Judges Dan-nehower, George C. Corson and Harold G. Knight asked attorneys for all interested parties to file briefs of their arguments within the next two weeks and held their decision under advisement.

In his argument before the Court, Linton said he was opposed to the granting of the license because it would have a demoralizing effect on the moral fiber of the community.

The Rev. Dr. Faust said he felt "the invasion of a taproom would lower the moral standards of the community."

A third speaker, Philip C. Vogt, of 1420 Edgewood Rd., objected to the noise and disturbances he said granting of a liquor license would create in the neighborhood.

Three residents of the Overbrook Hills area, however, said they had no objections to the granting of a liquor license and remarked that they could not understand how it could adversely affect the neighborhood.

Residents Press

but permanent work of grading and resurfacing the street will have to wait until Spring. If we started now, the whole street would only be a mud hole."

Alternative Plan

The alternative of starting temporary work on the street was suggested by Thompson, but he was told by Frye that any work done at this time should be permanent to avoid accidents and resulting charges against the Borough.

Walter A. Fox, President of the Council, stated, "Temporary measures were suggested only because Council wanted to satisfy nearby property owners. The shortage of materials, high prices, and labor difficulties mitigates the possibility of doing any work now."

Council also received two letters from owners of garages located on the paved section of the street objecting to proposed street repairs.

Miss Margaret Squier, of 305 Grayling Ave., owner of a block of five garages, stated in her letter, "Our garages were originally built in accordance with a permit issued by a Borough official. When Hampden Ave., was first paved in 1935, the garages were raised several feet above the roadbed, and we were forced to build entrance ramps which made it difficult to enter and leave the garages. We thought the whole matter was closed then, and you can imagine our consternation to find the matter has been brought up again."

Duplicate Letter

The other letter, a duplicate of Miss Squier's, was signed by Mrs. W. J. McDevitt, of 301 Grayling Ave.

The garages are commercial structures privately owned in groups of from three to five. One of the groups is being used as a carpenter shop.

Although the garages are located in a residential section, they were built before the Borough Council passed an ordinance making the area residential.

"The garages are one of the major stumbling blocks in our program," Thompson stated, "and unless something is done about them, there is no point in doing any repair work at all on the street."

Want 50-Ft. Roadbed

The paved section of the street now measures 28-feet with a side-walk on one side. Proposed plans call for a 50-foot roadbed with a 30-foot carway.

Up to the present time, the Marshalls have been using part of the unpaved section of Hampden Ave. which adjoins their property. If proposed repairs are made, they will be forced to move back 14 feet to their own property line.

Further Council action was deferred until complete reports of engineers' estimates and petitions signed by interested residents have been received by the Highway and Sewer Committee.

is putting TWO teams into the field, or maybe I should say alone.

That's a cute shop opening at 917 Montgomery Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Masters are the owners, and they are going to make a specialty of Pennsylvania Dutch back-grounds and designs, and no one should know them better because they have lived in Upper Montgomery County for a long time.

Incidentally, Mrs. Masters studied at Moore Institute in town, and Mr. Masters graduated from State—a seven-letter man, he was.

They will have a well-known up-state refinisher in their place, Tom McNabb, so stop by to say "hi" to them one of these days.

Congratulations to Bill Fittipol, he's the John J. Fittipol's brother from over at 150 Merion Ave.—who's just been upped to a Captain. He's stationed at Valley Forge General Hospital.

PARENTS' PROBLEMS

Myers Discusses Coming Trend of Old Age, Its Relationship To Today's Youth

By GARRY CLEVELAND
MYERS, Ph.D.

We are rapidly becoming a nation of old people. Between 1930 and 1940 the number of people in our country 65 years of age or more increased five times as fast as the total population. In 1900, one person out of 25 was 65 or over. In 1940, the proportion was one out of fourteen. By 1980, it will be about one out of nine. What will this trend mean to children?

Only about a third of the aged persons of our nation are self-supporting. The remainder are either helped or supported by their relatives and friends or by public agencies or private philanthropy. Over the years, industry has not, except during the war, wanted men and women over 45 or 50, and this problem will increase as jobs grow scarcer.

Looking After Parents
Year by year, children have grown less ready to look after their parents in old age. While social security has taken up some of the slack, it does, like all humane governmental aids, reduce the urge of children to look after their aged parents, and of the younger parents to exercise thrift in preparation for their older days. In some instances, this proves a moral loss within the family, though apparently a moral gain socially.

Religious education of children won't be made easier, with the average age of the church congregation already high, growing higher.

Nor does the picture for public education of children tomorrow look brighter, since increase in aged voters hardly will mean a more liberal assignment of public funds for educating children.

The growing proportion of older people increase the need that children shall be brought up with proper deference toward older persons, though the trend has been just the opposite. Also, it increases the need that all adults should understand children better, that young parents should cultivate wide interest now so they will not in their older days seek satisfaction from hampering their grandchildren. Year by year more grandparents and other in-laws are going to be sitting around where there are growing children and in homes with less and less space.

Freight Line In Delaware County Slated For Passengers

For 38 years the Newtown Square Branch of the Philadelphia and Delaware County Railroad Company has been no more than a one-track freight line.

But if the Delaware Valley Association for the United Nations Headquarters has anything to say about it, it may become a passenger line again as it was during the first 13 years of its existence.

Opened in 1895
July 3, 1895 was the day the Newtown Square Branch opened to carry passengers from Yeadon, Garrettsville, Arlington, Llanerch, Oakmont, Brookthorpe and Foxcroft, to Newtown Square.

In 1908 passenger service was discontinued and the Branch became the freight line it has remained to this day.

The history of the railroad goes back to 1890 when the Philadelphia and Delaware County Railroad Company was incorporated. Work started on the line in October, 1893. In later years the company was absorbed by the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company. That company is a part of the Pennsylvania Railroad System and as such the line is leased to the Pennsylvania Railroad.

9 Miles Long
It is more than nine miles long with its greater part located in Haverford Township, which it enters at Lansdowne Ave. below the Llanerch station. It leaves the Township above Darby Creek and Darby Rd.

Agent Walter England, the only freight agent on the line is stationed at Llanerch, the heart of the line. It is there that the Philadelphia Transportation Company, better known as the Red Arrow Line, has its car barns. That company uses the line to haul its supplies and machine parts.

At Oakmont, or Grassland as it was called in earlier years, the C. Charlton Lobb Company has a lumber and coal yard, for which the railroad hauls supplies. The Autocar Company of Ardmore also has a warehouse there where materials and parts are stored.

At Oakmont, or Grassland as it was called in earlier years, the C. Charlton Lobb Company has a lumber and coal yard, for which the railroad hauls supplies. The Autocar Company of Ardmore also has a warehouse there where materials and parts are stored.

The Suburban Construction Company of Oakmont and Llanerch has its headquarters for garages and other shops there.

Golf Supplies
Merion Golf Course is located along that part of the line at the northern end of Haverford Township, and the line takes top soil and golf supplies into the course.

It is along the Haverford Township section that the A. Atwater Kent estate is located. At West Chester Pike he has farms and homes on a 1,000-acre tract which are being sold off for building lots now.

The former Martha Lawrence estate borders on the track, too, near the Grassland station, and that, too, is being sold off for building lots.

Other famous names include Ellis College, the Pennsylvania Hospital, the George Wharton Pepper estate, the Charlton Varnall estate and a little old eight-corner school house which is located near Newtown Square. It is reputed to be more than 200 years old.

If the United Nations Headquarters Commission does decide to locate in the Delaware Valley, it will be locating on the "most ideal ground in the country," according to Robert Gray Taylor, of Media, who heads the Delaware Valley Association for the United Nations Headquarters.

It will also have at its disposal a railroad which will need only slight expansion to become the center of activity once more.

Gov. Martin Calls For "Fixing" End

Governor Edward Martin's call for an end to "fixing" of traffic violations as a means of helping reduce the highway accident toll in Pennsylvania has been heartily endorsed by The Automobile Club of Philadelphia—AAA.

"The Automobile Club of Philadelphia is unalterably opposed to the fix" because it believes that this activity is a potent, although indirect, cause of many traffic accidents and thus of injuries and deaths of highway users," declared James T. Habiland, President of the Club.

The Nativity of the Apple
It is generally understood that the apple was first grown in southwestern Asia and southern Europe. It was known to the Romans, by whom it was introduced into England. North America leads the world in apple production.

KNOW YOUR STATE

Pennsylvania's contribution to the industrial development of our Nation and to the industrial progress of the modern world is an important and established fact in the history of modern industry.

For many years when the United States was struggling to maintain its position as a producing nation against the competition of all Europe, Pennsylvania's coal and wood were the chief fuel for the nation's railroads. The City of Williamsport was the timber capital of the world; Oil City in Venango County was the world center for petroleum, and the town of Gap in Lancaster County was the chief known source of nickel.

The nickel mine at Gap, no longer in production, once exported its metal to all the industrial nations. In the 1870's, Pennsylvania's position as the world's greatest producer of nickel was resigned to Norway, then to New Caledonia and finally to the Sudbury district in the Province of Ontario which is now the chief source of that metal so important in the production of steel alloys, domestic utensils and German Silver.

Nickel is today essential in the production of armor plate, Monel metal, of important ferrous alloys such as Invar and of many of the stainless steels, but in the infancy of the industrial age, it was Pennsylvania's output of this metal which made possible many of the technical developments that have led to its universal use in the mechanical arts.

Drinking played a part in one out of six fatal traffic accidents in the United States last year. In Pennsylvania the 1945 traffic accident record involved the death of 88 intoxicated pedestrians and the injury of 219.

Of the 24,457 traffic violations' arrests made by the Pennsylvania State Police last year, 261 were for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors. Through-out the country "under the influence of liquor" was reported for seven per cent of drivers in rural fatal accidents and four per cent of drivers in urban accidents.

INSIDE WASHINGTON
Delinquent Problem Discussed By Department of Justice
Special to the Central Press
WASHINGTON—Something is being done, on a national basis, about the sweeping increase in juvenile delinquency, always an aftermath of war.

Behind the "Delinquency" meeting called in October here in Washington by the department of justice, is a new idea. Rather, a collection of new ideas and concepts from all parts of the country about the entire problem of wayward boys and girls.

What does it take to run a baby?

Plenty—and plenty of electricity, too. A hungry young citizen needs food—lots of it—often. That food needs preparation—refrigeration—reheating.

Baby needs hot water—lots of it—often. So does his wardrobe. And because Mother worries about germs, she boils practically everything but Baby himself.

Clocks must be dependable when there's a baby in the house. Lights must go on—quick—when he cries out in his sleep. Rooms must be kept warm—the list is endless.

Today's mothers are luckier than those of 20 years ago. With electricity ready at all times—in any quantity—to help with the household chores, mothers have more time to enjoy their youngsters. Never before has electricity done so many tasks for so little cost. Actually, the average family today gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did 20 years ago. Your friends and neighbors in this company—and your own increased usage—helped make that possible.

Veterans SERVICE BUREAU

EDITOR'S NOTE: This newspaper, through special arrangement with the Washington Bureau of Western Newspaper Union at 1616 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., is able to bring readers this weekly column on problems of the veteran and his family. Questions may be addressed to the Service Bureau and they will be answered in a subsequent column. No replies can be made direct by mail, but only in the column which will appear in this newspaper regularly.

One year after V-J Day saw 1,250,000 veterans of World War II enrolled in some form of education or training under the two laws providing such facilities for war veterans.

According to Gen. Omar N. Bradley, VA director, the greatest problem facing the G.I. educational and training program is that of the colleges in securing teachers and in providing quarters for this tremendous influx of students. General Bradley predicted that in the next year this figure would be doubled.

One of the newer forms of education is on-the-farm training, combining class work with practical supervised farming. To supplement the educational program, VA has prevailed upon the army and navy for release of more than 2,000,000 text books for veterans studying under Public Law 16 and the G.I. Bill.

General Bradley expressed concern over failure of the veterans to take advantage of their government insurance. Less than one out of four veterans have premiums up-to-date on government insurance and almost 10,000,000 eligible veterans are now without National Service Life Insurance, while originally 95 per cent of them carried the insurance when they were in the armed services. In other words, 90 billion dollars worth of economic security has been permitted to lapse. One of the important objectives of VA during the coming year will be to help veterans in reinstating their insurance.

Questions and Answers

Q. My husband joined the army April 1, 1946. We have two children, two and four years of age. Also a good farm, cows, mules, hogs and chicken. I will care for all of these things. We got the farm worked this year by my helping to do much of the work, which I was unable to do. My husband is not good. I am 26 years old and he is 29. Will be 30 in February. I have no one to stay with me except his 70-year-old mother. He wants to get out of the army and work his farm next year. Is there any chance? Please help me.—Mrs. D. W. T. Moulton, Ala.

A. He should have no trouble obtaining his discharge since he is a father. Suggest he contact his commanding officer and apply for his discharge.

Q. During 30 months of army service I sent my parents an allotment every month. Now my parents are dead. Can I collect the amount I sent them from their estate when sold?—C. W. J. Green Pond, Ala.

A. This is a legal question and you should consult a lawyer.

Q. I am a widow with one son who is now 16 years old, an aged father-in-law, aged 82, and another son serving overseas. I get a family allowance which is insufficient to supply the needs of our household and the stock, etc. Living expenses have risen, as you know. Would I be permitted to take a job to supplement the family allowance and still be entitled to it?—Mrs. M. A. M. Dana, N. C.

A. There is no reason why you shouldn't take a job.

Q. Can you tell me where the 383rd Infantry is now? Are they discharged? They trained in Camp White, Ore., and later went to San Luis, Opospo, Calif., and were shipped to the Pacific.—M. D. Wood, Calif.

A. The army says the 383rd Infantry was inactivated February 3, 1946.

Q. I was discharged with a medical disability from the navy in World War I with tuberculosis and am unable to do manual labor. Can you help me in any way?

A. You should apply to your nearest office of the Veterans' Administration and ask for a disability rating. If your illness was the result of your navy service it would be a service-connected disability, but even if it is not service-connected, you likely would be entitled to a disability pension.

Q. My father entered service nearly three years ago, claiming he was a single man and not naming his children as dependents. He was discharged a few months ago, and we never received allotments during the entire time he was in service. We were all under 18 years of age. Is there anything we could do about it now?—Miss M. L. C. Credo, W. Va.

A. I am afraid there is nothing to be done now. To be sure, however, you might write to the Office of Dependency Claims, War Department, Newark 2, N. J.

Application forms for amputee veterans to use in obtaining cars at government expense, mailed last week from the Veterans Administration regional office, Philadelphia, will be ready for veterans this week in all VA contact offices.

New or used automobiles, jeeps, trucks, station-wagons and tractors may be purchased by eligible veterans, to be paid for by the government, under provisions of the recently enacted law. Purchase of other conveyances requires the approval of the VA central office in Washington.

Additional Benefits To Vets' Survivors

A recent amendment to the Social Security Act provides monthly benefits to qualified survivors of World War II Veterans who were discharged under conditions other than dishonorable and whose dependents are not qualified to receive compensation or pensions from the Veterans Administration. H. C. Hoover, Manager of the Norristown Social Security Administration office, announced this week.

"In the cases of such veterans who died before enactment of the new amendment on August 10, 1946, the measure provides monthly benefits retroactive to the date of the veteran's death if the survivors file their benefit claims before midnight, February 10, 1947. Monthly benefits other than retroactive are also payable on claims filed at any time by qualified persons," Hoover added.

40% of Veterans Unable to Vote

More than 40 per cent of Lower Merion Township veterans are still unregistered, a survey conducted last week by the Main Line Chapter of the American Veterans Committee has revealed.

This was announced at Wednesday's meeting of the group held in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. Building.

As a result of this disclosure, Frank X. DeLone, acting chairman, said that the A. V. C. will undertake an extensive campaign to register all eligible veterans on a non-partisan basis.

Next regular meeting of the local chapter of the group will be held Wednesday, September 18, in the Y. M. C. A.

SPORTS SCENE

By JACK FORD
Villanova Varieties

Two former Villanova College football stars will officiate in the National Pro Football League this fall. Bill Grimberg, of Williamsport, and Cletus Gardner, San Diego, have been selected by Commissioner Bert Bell, of Narberth. Grimberg also acts as a boxing official.

Among the fans pulling for lean Mickey Vernon, of Marcus Hook and the Washington Senators, to win the American League batting crown, are several of his former instructors at Villanova. Vernon played freshman baseball with the Wildcats.

Coach Jordon Oliver will have double trouble on his Villanova football team this season. Among the halfback candidates are twins Joe and John Tuiskie. Both Army veterans, the twins played for West Catholic High's 1943 Philadelphia scholastic champions. They are expected to see action in Saturday's opener.

George Sandusky, a 260-pound guard candidate, has displaced Mel Downey as the heaviest man on the Wildcat football squad. Downey, a probable first-string tackle against Kings Point, weighs 240 pounds.

Strong proof that athletes make good students was recently offered when Villanova authorities released the Spring term honor roll. Eight grid candidates were on the list. Included in the group were Vince McPeak and Mel Downey.

Joe Yednock is the most recent ex-Villanova baseball star to enter organized baseball. Yednock, a native of Phoenixville, is playing with Mahanoy City, of the North Atlantic League, a Boston Braves farm. Joe led the Wildcat hitters in 1942 before entering the Army. He also played football three seasons under Coach Clipper Smith.

Two ends who played together in 1942 and 1943 have returned for their final season of play with the Villanova eleven. They are Bill Sullivan, of Abington, and Milt Anderson, Stamford, Conn. Both attended New York Military Academy before entering Villanova. They were the regular ends in 1943 and left college to accept Navy commissions.

Villanova has one of the fastest halfbacks in the country in George Guida. Wildcat track star Guida holds the junior national 200-meter mark.

Recently discharged from the Navy, Guida is making his first bid for a grid post. Oliver believes the speedy Guida will give the Wildcats one of the top spot players in the East. Guida once raced 100 yards in 9.6 seconds.

Lyons On The Links

By MARTY LYONS
Llanerch Country Club golf pro and president, Phila. PGA.

Unlike most other irons in your bag, the No. 9 can be used for almost any emergency. You can use this iron for eight or 10 different shots, from the normal niblick pitch to short chips around the greens.

One of the handiest clubs you carry, the 9-iron can be used for a lob or flick shot for pitching over hazards. I believe that this club actually is more handy than the wedge for short pitches.

There are three ways of going for the straight shot. The straight shot is to the left (hook) or left to right (fade). All three methods may prove extremely useful, depending upon the circumstances.

To hit the ball from right to left, I usually try to play it off the right heel. The blade is square to the right side of the pin. The ball is struck with a descending blow and the swing is inside-out.

Virtually the reverse is true for the left to right shot. The blade is opened somewhat and the blade also is slightly opened, while the ball is about in the center of the feet.

I try to strike the ball a glancing blow, which will impart left to right spin, resulting in a little fade to the pin.

Either one of these shots, in my opinion, is preferable to the straight shot. However, to hit one in this fashion I suggest a square stance. Try to swing the club on an upright circle at the hole.

The fade or hook shot may be alternately employed depending upon wind conditions, the contour of the green and pin position.

For the short, lobbing pitch with a 9-iron employ a slow swing, open stance and an open blade. You'll find that you can play this shot more easily if the right hand is moved a bit more on top of the shaft.

Be sure to take the club back far enough on all these short shots to enable you to swing. If you take it back only two or three feet you're likely to poke at the ball instead of swinging it. If the green happens to be hard and the pin not too far away, you'll find the No. 9 iron excellent for chipping.

In next week's column, Marty Lyons will explain the best ways to hit out of trouble.

Narberth, Drexel Hill Nines Open Main Line League Title Series

Williams Will Oppose Hillers' Jack Creany On Mound In Opener

One of the most bitterly contested playoff series in the Main Line Baseball League's lengthy history is looked for when Narberth and Drexel Hill clash beginning Saturday.

Narberth, first place finisher, and the Hillers, who were only a half-game behind, will stage a five-game series. All games will be played on Narberth's field at the suggestion of Joe Irvin, Drexel Hill manager, who admitted better facilities for both spectators and players were available at the Borough field.

The series looms as a toss-up in all respects, with the two teams virtually evenly matched. Narberth is conceded to have harder hitting outfield and more power behind the plate in Bob Yeasley, former Penn star, and Harold Duffy.

But Drexel Hill has an ace moundsmen in Jack (Lefty) Creany, who has had more than ordinary success against Narberth's southpaw sluggers. Drexel Hill's infield also is better balanced with both Jack Williams, first baseman, and Second Baseman Joe Rosenfeld were chosen on the league's all-star team.

Jack Williams, the league's leading hurler with a 9 and 3 record, is expected to pitch Saturday's inaugural for Narberth. Manager, Gene Davis will name either Dom Caniglia or Charlie Schriener in the Sunday scrap.

Creany, long and lanky, will oppose Williams in the opener for Drexel Hill. Irvin then can use Cliff Williamson, Frank Carter, Charlie Gunther or Bob Seiber.

The series marks the 16th time since 1908 that Narberth has been in the Championship final. Narberth hasn't taken the title since 1944, however, when the Borough baseballers shared it with Manoa after a belated playoff which didn't conclude until late October.

During the regular league season, Drexel Hill defeated Narberth by 10-5 and 8-1 margins. In a five-inning game halted by rain, and by 6-2.

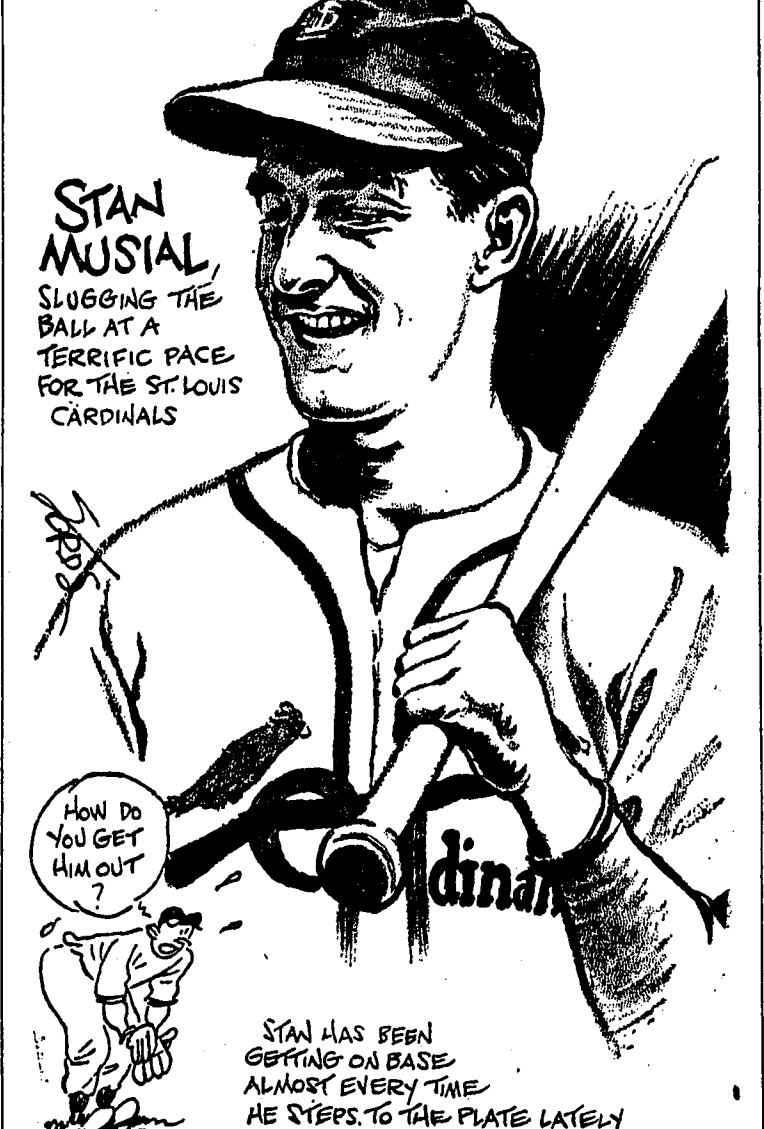

In the preliminary playoff series, Narberth advanced to the title round by beating Manoa, 7-5 in 10 innings, after Manoa had scored a 3-2 triumph, then winning by 6-4 and 4-3. Narberth clinched a playoff berth Saturday with its 4-3 decision.

Ardmore upset Drexel Hill, 2-1, in their playoff, but Drexel Hill then humbled the Lions, 4-1 and 7-6. Ardmore evened the series Saturday, winning by 4-3, but the Hillers retaliated with a 10-3 decision the following day to sweep the series.

WAA Asks Vets To Be Patient
Although veterans of World War II now have exclusive rights to buy many additional war surplus items through the War Assets Administration, Frank L. McNamara, Philadelphia regional director, this week cautioned former servicemen to be patient.

"Government surplus stocks are not nearly large enough to meet the demands of all veterans who want them," he said. "But the new WAA policy means certified veterans will have the sole privilege of buying forty or more scarce items as they become available."

SLUGGING . . . . . By Jack Sords

Narberth Passers May Quit Main Line Basketball League

Eight clubs, including the Lower Merion Veterans, will compete in the Main Line Basketball League during the 1946-47 season, officials announced after their first meeting.

Upper Darby, eighth last season, had its franchise revoked and its players declared free agents when club officials were unable to obtain a playing site. Narberth, a charter member, also has been given two weeks to decide whether it will complete this year.

Lower Merion Veterans, comprising players from Lower Merion High's State championship teams of a few seasons ago, will be coached by Church Viguers, ex-Penn captain. The Vets will play home games at Lower Merion High.

Clifton Heights, defending champion; Fairmount Fire Co. of Norristown, Lukens Steel of Coatesville, Wayne Veterans, Brookline Mitchell & Ness, and Penn Steel of Chester will round out the circuit. In the event Narberth withdraws, Phoenixville Slovak-Americans will enter the league, which will open the second week in November.

League officials ruled that this year only two "outsiders" will be permitted to play on each team; all other squad members must live in Montgomery, Chester or Delaware counties. However, all players included on the final eligibility list last year will be permitted to play this season.

Charles E. Harnden, of Narberth, was re-elected league president and John Turner, Ardmore, secretary-treasurer. Norman Robinson, Ardmore Junior High coach, was named new vice president and commissioner of officials.

The Main Line "B" League also will be revived this year, comprising players of lesser talent. Four member teams of the "A" League will sponsor "B" squads and 12 other applications have been received, including five from Ardmore.

"B" League members will meet Monday, Sept. 16, in Narberth to draw up a schedule.

P. E. Softball Winners Big League Guests

Members of the Girls' Softball team of Ardmore, winners of the Philadelphia Electric League championship, were the guests of Herb Penick, general manager of the Phillies baseball team at the Phillies-St. Louis game Tuesday afternoon.

The girls were also entertained at dinner in Philadelphia after the game.

Highland Packers, St. Margaret's In 3d Game Saturday

St. Margaret's of Narberth and St. Laurence, Highland Park, will resume their five-game series for the Mont-De-Catholic Baseball League championship Saturday, clashing on the St. Laurence diamond.

The fourth and perhaps decisive game of the series will be staged Sunday afternoon, probably at Narberth.

The two teams divided their opening games last weekend, with St. Laurence winning the first meeting, 3-2, in a thrilling 14-inning battle. St. Margaret's gained a thumping revenge Sunday at City Line and Burnmont Rd., winning by 23-2 to even the series.

Jimmy McCabe outpitched Albie Becker, young Ardmore ace in the Main Line League, on Saturday as the Highland Packers triumphed. McCabe, like most of the St. Laurence players, is a veteran of World War II. He served in the South Pacific and two teammates, John Hogan and Donovan, were wounded in action.

On Sunday, Bob Tabor moved in from shortstop to the mound for Narberth. He held St. Laurence to eight scattered hits while himself belting two triples, a home run and single.

St. Margaret's scored 12 runs in the sixth inning on 10 hits and four walks. In all, the Main Liners pumpled three St. Laurence pitchers for 21 hits.

Delco Loop Players Attend WFIL Forum

Eastern Delaware County Junior Boys Baseball League players were guests of honor on the WFIL Sports Clinic program at 11 A. M. Friday.

Buddy Rosar, stellar A's catcher, guest starred on the panel of experts lined up to answer the boys' questions on baseball technique. Other members of the panel included Tom Moorehead, WFIL sports commentator, and Don Kellett, of Narberth, station sports advisor and University of Pennsylvania basketball coach.

Jack Westenberg, of 132 Beverly Avenue, E. Lansdowne, was the first boy called to the microphone to fire a question at Buddy Rosar. Don Kellett then awarded him a baseball for being "the outstanding all-around player in the league." Dick Bevin, of Drexel Hill, pitched the next question and was awarded a trophy for the highest batting average in the league—585.

The other boys who fired questions on sports rules at Rosar, Kellett, and Moorehead included: Manfred Haiges, 442 Clifton Ave.,

Entries From Many States For Bryn Mawr Horse Show

The Bryn Mawr Horse Show will be resumed Sept. 26, 27 and 28 after a war-enforced lapse on the horse show grounds at Bryn Mawr. The annual Bryn Mawr Hound Show also will be revived and staged on the first day of the Hound Show.

The all-hunter event was first held in 1895 and the Bryn Mawr Horse Show is the oldest in Pennsylvania. Competition is expected to be keen, with entrants from many States.

Mrs. George Greenhalgh, of Berryville, Va., whose horses swept four major challenge cups at the last show in 1940, is expected to field strong entries.

Judges for all classes will be Frederick H. Bontecou, Millbrook, N. Y.; Anderson Fowler, Far Hills, N. J.; John K. Shaw, Baltimore; Maj. Clifford Sifton, Toronto, and Bayard Tuckerman, Jr., Boston.

The 26th annual Bryn Mawr Hound Show will be jointly sponsored by the Penn-Marydel Foxhound Association. It will rank as the official hound show of the Master Foxhounds Association of America, the American Foxhound Club and the National Beagle Club.

Taking its place as the national show, it is comparable to England's famous Peterborough. Walter Jeffords is president of the show committee.

Among the hounds to be shown is Lena, one of Lena's world-renowned litter of 23, which will be entered by the Radnor Hunt Club. Newbold Ely, owner of Lena, presented the dog to the club.

The war between the United States and the Seminole Indians in Florida lasted from 1835 to 1842 and cost the United States 10 million dollars and 2,000 lives.

Still faced with the problem of uncovering the strongest possible lineup, Coach Jordan Olivar will send his Villanova football forces into action for the first time Saturday afternoon.

The Villanovans will play in their Main Line stadium for the first time since 1938, meeting U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, of Kings Point, in the opener of a 10-game schedule.

The game has been designated as an alumni Homecoming Day battle, and grads from many years back are expected to attend. It will be the first alumni reunion since 1941.

If Villanova is to have any breathers on that ambitious schedule, Saturday's must be it. For following the Merchant Mariners—who figure to be nobody's set-up—the Wildcats must meet Army and Navy on successive Saturdays at the Academy fields.

Other games have been scheduled with Detroit, Boston College—touted as one of the East's strongest this year—Miami U., University of Florida, Holy Cross, Marquette and Georgetown.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Martini Evangelical Lutheran Church,
Haverford Ave. at 57th Street,
Philadelphia 31, Pennsylvania.The Editor,
Lower Merion Newspapers, Inc.,
Ardmore, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Your feature article entitled "Official Exclusion of Church a Novelty in County History" in the August 23 issue of your papers, was most interesting and informative. As a clergyman of the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran Church and pastor of the congregation under discussion, I was particularly interested. It's good to get a look at oneself as others see you.

By the way of enlarging on what you have said, may I add that while the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran Church is a minority group in eastern Pennsylvania, the Missouri Synod is not, by any means, a small segment of Lutheranism in America. Of the three major bodies of Lutheranism on this continent, the Synodical Conference (of which the Missouri Synod is a constituent body) is only slightly smaller in number of confirmed members and somewhat larger in number of baptized members, than the United Lutheran Church in America. According to 1944 statistics, the Synodical Conference numbers 1,220,716 confirmed, and 1,808,261 baptized. It has 5,278 organized congregations, served by a clergy numbering 5,332.

While it is true, as you stated in your article, that the Missouri Synod has refused to affiliate with other Lutheran bodies, its refusal is not based on isolationism or selection, but rather upon a desire for true unity in doctrine and practice. A union without true unity can only have the appearance of unity. The Missouri Synod is working with other Lutheran bodies in trying to come to full agreement in doctrine and practice before affiliation, and progress in that direction is being made, particularly with the American Lutheran Church.

Cordially,
(Signed)
WALTER F. RUEGER, Pastor

Cop Bowled Over By $200 Blaze

Four fire companies, about 50 cars and at least 200 people came a runnin' to 200 Buck Lane, Haverford, Saturday afternoon when J. C. Huber's chimney caught fire.

To top all the confusion in the narrow street, one of Haverford Township's patrolmen, Joseph Joyce, was bowled over by a car as he was directing traffic in front of the house.

The jovial cop picked himself up and cheerfully waved the errant motorist on.

The fire, which started when sparks from a bucket-a-day burner in the cellar set the chimney spot ablaze, was quickly extinguished by the Haverford, Brookline, Bryn Mawr, and Ardmore fire companies.
